

Aurora Beacon News

Beacon News, The (Aurora, IL)

July 12, 2007

in brief

Page: 14

Article Text:

McCormick top '07 humanitarian

The Junior League of Kane & DuPage Counties, Inc. has named local business owner, Steven McCormick, Humanitarian of the Year. McCormick owns First Centennial Mortgage located in Aurora, Glen Ellyn and Sycamore.

McCormick has been instrumental in the success of Cinderella's Closet, a program initiated by the JLKD to help girls with financial difficulties obtain free prom dresses. He and the employees at First Centennial Mortgage have collected gently-used dresses from area residents for Cinderella's Closet. In addition, McCormick has provided storage for the dresses and supplies as well as helped with the set-up of the one-day Prom Dress Boutique. McCormick also continues to be a financial supporter of the Junior League of Kane & DuPage Counties, Inc.

Other qualifications making McCormick the Humanitarian of the Year include: current Board President for the Aurora Family YMCA; coach and current sponsor of a Tri-Cities soccer team; membership with the Aurora Rotary; and finally a commitment to Carein' Connections Unlimited and helping the homeless downtown receive proper medical care and food.

Copyright, 2007, The Beacon News. All rights reserved. REPRODUCTION PROHIBITED.

Record Number: 2_6_5_FV12_BRIEFS_S1