First Centennial dedicates facility

First Centennial Mortgage Corporation is hosting a Ribbon Cutting and Dedication Ceremony at noon on Friday, April 18 of their new location at 2471 W. Sullivan Road. It is located one block west of Orchard Road and one block south of I-88, at the corner of Bushwood and Sullivan across from the Hampton Inn. First Centennial Mortgage Corporation is an Aurora-based company in existence since 1995. Owners/brothers Steven McCormick of Geneva and Dave McCormick of Batavia started construction on the new state-of-the-art facility in July, 2007 with architect, D.L. Rawlings and builder, R.C. Wegman. For information call (630) 906-7315 or visit www.GoFCM.com.
